Moderato

The musical score is written for piano and organ. The piano part is in treble and bass clefs, with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a common time signature. The organ part is in treble clef, also in three sharps. The tempo is marked 'Moderato'. The score is divided into four systems, each with four measures. The first system includes two vocal lines: '1. 3. Last night I said these words to my girl,' and '2. You don't need me to show to the way love,'. The second system continues the vocal lines: 'I know you nev - er e - ven try girl.' and 'Why do I al - ways have to say love.' followed by 'Come'. The third system features the organ playing a repeating pattern of chords: A, F#m, C#m, A, with the vocal line 'on, come on, come on, come on. Please'. The fourth system concludes with the vocal line 'please me, oh yeh, like I please you.' and a final organ chord of A, B7.

Moderato

The musical score is written for piano and organ. It begins with a piano introduction in C major, 4/4 time, marked 'Moderato'. The piano part features a simple harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The organ part, indicated by a registration number of 4, provides a more complex accompaniment with sustained chords and moving lines. The vocal melody is written in a single staff, with lyrics in English. The score includes a key signature change to D major for the final section. The piece concludes with a Coda section marked 'D.S. al Coda' and '(repeat and fade)'.

Moderato

The musical score is written for voice and organ. It consists of six systems of music. Each system has a vocal line on a treble clef staff and an organ line on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The organ part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the bass and chords in the treble. Chord symbols (C7, A7, D7, G7, F, C, Am, Ab) are placed above the organ staff to indicate the harmony. The lyrics are written below the vocal staff. The piece is in 4/4 time and has a tempo marking of 'Moderato'. The key signature has one flat (Bb).

I call your name but you're not there, was I to blame for being un-fair, Oh I can't sleep at night since you've been gone.
I nev-er weep at night I can't go on. Well don't you know I can't take it.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in B-flat major, 4/4 time, marked 'Moderately bright' and 'mf'. The introduction consists of four measures of chords: F, E-flat, F, and E-flat. The vocal melody enters in the fifth measure with the lyrics '1. You've been good to me, you made me glad when I was blue. 2. I could tell the world a thing or two a-bout our love.' The piano accompaniment provides a steady harmonic support with chords of B-flat, E-flat, B-flat, and F7. The vocal line continues with the lyrics 'And e-ter-nal-ly I'll al-ways be in love with you. I know, lit-tle girl, on-ly a fool would doubt our love. And all I got-ta do is thank you, girl, — thank you, girl. —' The score concludes with a 'to Coda' marking and a first ending (marked '1.') leading to a final chord of F7.

The musical score is written for piano and organ. It begins with a 'Slowly' tempo marking and a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic. The piano part features a melodic line in the right hand and a harmonic accompaniment in the left hand, often using sustained chords. The organ part provides a steady accompaniment with sustained chords. The lyrics are written below the piano part. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, accidentals, and dynamic markings. The key signature is one flat (Bb), and the time signature is common time (C). The score is divided into systems, with lyrics aligned with the piano part. The organ part is indicated by the registration number 3.

The musical score is written for organ and voice. It begins with a 'Moderato' tempo marking. The organ part is in the right hand, and the vocal part is in the left hand. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is common time (C). The score is divided into several systems, each with a key signature change indicated by a sharp sign. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings (mf, p, f). The organ part features chords and arpeggios. The vocal part includes lyrics and melodic lines. The score ends with a 'repeat and fade' instruction.

Bright shuffle tempo

The musical score is written for piano and organ. It begins with a treble and bass clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature. The tempo is marked 'Bright shuffle tempo'. The score is divided into several systems, each with a key signature change indicated by a sharp sign and a chord symbol (C7, Dm7, F7, Ab, F7, E7, Am, C7, G7). The lyrics are written below the piano part, with some lines in parentheses indicating alternative phrasings. The score ends with a 'to Coda' instruction and a double bar line.

System 1: C7
1. I want a love that's right, — out right is on - ly half of what's wrong.
(2.) pick me up, — from where some try to drag — me down.
(3.) love of yours, — to miss that love is some-thing I hate.

System 2: Dm7

Oh yeah yeah

Oh please believe me I'd hate to miss the train oh yeah (yeah)

Oh yeah-and if you leave me I won't be late again oh no oh no

Yeah yeah I've got a feeling yeah (I've got a feeling)

2. Oh please believe me I'd hate to miss the train oh yeah (yeah)
Oh yeah-and if you leave me I won't be late again oh no oh no
Yeah yeah I've got a feeling yeah (I've got a feeling)
3. I've got a feeling that keeps me on my toes oh yeah
Oh yeah-I've got a feeling I think that everybody knows oh yeah oh yeah
Yeah yeah I've got a feeling yeah (I've got a feeling)
